

Canterbury DigiAwards: Documentary

Please note: The bullet points outlined below are to help guide you in creating your entry and will inform the judges when marking your entry.

Area	Criteria
1. Compelling	Student/s use artistic elements to create a compelling digital documentary that: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● is about an engaging and relevant topic ● Is informative with accurate subject knowledge ● is clearly organised, with a beginning, middle and end ● is clearly depicted by the actors, characters, or presenters ● has dialogue that is relevant and adds to the documentary story ● uses technical elements effectively, e.g. lighting, music, and sound, to capture people’s interest, to create a sense of drama, atmosphere, or a type of mood ● challenges people to think ● makes people curious about something.
2. Technical	Student/s use technical elements to make a digital documentary that: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● demonstrates the use of digital technology as an essential part of the creative process ● uses digital documentary storytelling techniques effectively, such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ lighting ○ audio, including clear dialogue ○ music ○ shot - panning, wide angle, zoom ○ transitions ○ digital effects/enhancements ● is edited effectively ● uses graphics/titles effectively to enhance the documentary (if required) ● is innovative in combining documentary style storytelling elements with digital technology ● has music, song, or images that are free to use or modify (See Creative Commons).
3. Creativity	Student/s make a creative digital documentary that: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● is original – different from something people might normally see ● is imaginative – demonstrates a variety of ideas or a novel approach ● demonstrates a creative process, e.g. ways of exploring, working together, applying different techniques (this should be evident in the final product, but can otherwise be explained in the entry form when entering your project).
4. Theme development	Student/s make a documentary that reflects the 2018 DigiAwards theme or a self chosen theme that: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● clearly demonstrates aspects of this theme ● attempts to inform others about aspects of the theme or compels them to find out more about it.